LYNCH WAS BADLY BEATEN.

HE SWEARS POLICEMAN KECHANE CLUBBED

HIM, BUT A JURY FIND OTHERWISE. Policeman John F. Rachane, of the 125th street station, was put on trial in the General Sessions yesterday before Recorder Smyth on a charge of bruinlly clubbing Michael Lynch, of No. 250 East 125th street.

Lynch, seemingly, told a very straightforward story. He said that on the night of August 25 last, as he was returning from a meeting of the Lumber Handlers' Union, he met Keohane on the corner of Second avenue and 126th street, in company with Second avenue and 126th street, in company with two men.

One of the men asked Lynch if he had any "butts," and he replied, "Do I look as if I carried 'butts?"

Policeman Koohane then, he said, smashed him over the head with his nightstick and he ran home. The men collowed him and caught him at his door. The policeman then took him to the station house and clubbed him terribly on the way.

Policeman Hallanan and another policeman swore that on the night Lynch was arrested they saw him fighting with two men on the corner of 125th street and Second avenue and that was whore he received his injuries. The men pounded him terribly, and ran away when Hallanan ap proached. He asked Lynch what was the matter and he made a report of the men having beaten Lynch and he said he had not, though it was his duty to do so.

Policeman Kechane denied that he had touched Lynch with his club.

MRS. LESLIE LOSES HER WATCH. Mrs. Frank Leslie is mourning the loss of her watch. Besides its intrinsic value it was highly prized by her on account of the associations connected with it. Mrs. Leslie had the following advertisement in-

LOST.—TINY ENAMELLED WATCH, WITH MONOgram, coronet and clover leaf; Forget-ma-not chain, liberal reward on return to FRANK LESLIE, 110 5th key, between 11 and 4.

She had been at Manager A. M. Palmer's house, on Woot Sixty-fifth street, and she thinks she had her watch while there. She returned to her hotel, the Geriach, on Twenty-seventh street, near Sixth avenue, in her carriage. Shortly afterward she missed the watch.
